NARRATIVE:

Ronald Addison has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include multiple cases of domestic violence with injury, robbery, terrorism, burglary, petty theft with priors, theft, possession of narcotic controlled substances and possession of drug paraphernalia. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 16 month term for burglary. Addison was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 4, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Addison qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offenses for petty theft with priors is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
